DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicants canceled claims 1-17.
2. Due to new grounds of rejections, previously indicated allowability of claim 18 is hereby withdrawn, and the following rejection is made non-final. The Examiner sincerely apologizes for any inconvenience caused by this.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. There is no support in the original disclosure for the substrate having an adsorbent thereon for a surface active agent prior to the formation of the photoresist layer (the only thing [0033] of present specification is stating is that one can remove the surface active agent as completely as possible before applying the composition onto the substrate surface by using an adsorbent (also, the specification does not say that the adsorbent is to be present on the substrate).

6. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Present specification ([0033]) states that one can remove the surface active agent as completely as possible before applying the composition onto the substrate surface by using an adsorbent. That is, before applying the composition onto the substrate, the surface active agent is supposedly removed as completely as possible. However, present claim 18 is claiming a photosensitive material which comprises (a) a substrate, which already has an adsorbent thereon before the formation of the photoresist layer (for the purpose of adsorbing a surface active agent) and (b) a photoresist layer, which comprises a surface active agent in a concentration lower than 10 ppm by weight. Therefore, according to the present claim 18, it seems that the removal of the surface active agent does not occur until the photoresist layer is applied onto the substrate (so that the adsorbent in the substrate starts adsorbing the surface active agent in the photoresist layer). That is, the surface active agent is still present in the photosensitive composition and not removed before applying the composition onto the substrate, as explained in present specification.

Appropriate correction is required.
